NEWS FROM TOWER HAMLETS COUNCIL AND YOUR COMMUNITY

Council unites to support refugees

BY SHALINA HUSSAIN

LOCAL politicians have united to pledge support to refugees.

Mayor John Biggs and the leaders of the two opposition groups on the council will be writing to the Prime Minister to give their backing to those fleeing war and conflict.

At a council meeting on September 16, Mayor Biggs introduced an emergency motion in response to the refugee crisis arising from the conflicts in Syria, Libya, Iraq and Eritrea.

The motion stated Britain and other countries have a moral duty to provide sanctuary for those forced to flee their homes.

Large numbers of refugees have undertaken hazardous and lengthy journeys, and many have lost their lives, trying to reach a safe haven in Europe.

UN figures show a third of a million people have attempted to cross the Mediterranean Sea in the last eight months.

Mayor Biggs said: "East London has a proud history of providing a safe haven for refugees of war and conflict.

"We have all been touched by the scenes of desperate refugees fleeing for their lives.

"London must play its part and Tower Hamlets will be at the forefront of London's response.

"Irrespective of party affiliation, I know my colleagues in the council chamber want to see us ready to play our full part in this humanitarian crisis."

The mayor emphasised that support would be carefully managed – any provisions for refugees and asylum seekers will not impact on resources and services for residents such as the limited supply of social housing.

The council's priority, he said, would always be its residents, but with support from the government it could help refugees.

Leaders of all the political groups will ask the Prime Minister to make available sufficient resources to enable councils to make suitable provision for refugees while ensuring they can meet obligations to residents.

Anish Kapoor and Ai Weiwei visit Spitalfields museum

BY JESSICA ODUBAYO

TWO world-renowned artists stopped off in Spitalfields during a walk to highlight the plight of refugees.

Anish Kapoor and Ai Weiwei visited the Museum of Immigration and Diversity at 19 Princelet Street on Thursday, September 17.

Each carrying a blanket as millions of refugees, the artists were joined on their seven-mile walk by former asylum seekers who have settled in the UK.

Susie Symes, chair of trustees at 19 Princelet Street, and Philip Black, a member of the museum advisory board, were among those who welcomed the walkers with water, fruit and other refreshments to help fuel their journey.

Ms Symes told the group that the museum, which was first lived in by Protestant Huguenots escaping religious persecution in France, has been home to waves of new arrivals of different cultures and religions.

She described the 1719 house as a place of hope where the word 'refugee' entered the English language.

"This refugee crisis makes us reflect on what a different world we would be living in if others had stood by and refused to help us when we were in peril and afraid," Susie said.

"The museum owes so much to the human rights campaigners and refugees who founded it: Huguenots, Jews and Bengalis who wanted to show the world what we can achieve when we work together, and welcome the stranger to our homeland."

Mr Black said: "Where better than 19 Princelet Street for Anish Kapoor and Ai Weiwei to visit, as they walked in solidarity with the world's 20 million refugees."

Museum volunteers wore T-shirts bearing the inscription 'the home of all our hopes', across multi-coloured Union Flags.

Kapoor thanked volunteers for welcoming the group and doing the work they do.

Walker Nayrouz Tatanaki, who sought refuge in the UK from Libya, said: "I cannot believe what is happening to refugees in Europe.

"I am happy the art world has responded in this way."

Hundreds of gifts donated to refugee 'drop-off' appeal

BY JESSICA ODUBAYO

PEOPLE in Tower Hamlets showed compassion and kindness when they donated hundreds of essential items for Calais refugees.

Twenty-year-old Mayisha Begum organised the drop-off event at St Matthias Old Church and Community Centre in Poplar on Tuesday, September 15.

She set up Convoy to Calais, to collect essentials including tents and sleeping bags, books, pots, pans, warm clothing, tinned food and first aid supplies.

"In the media, refugees are being talked about in a negative way," Mayisha said.

"They are being blamed for their plight, although many are living in intolerable conditions with little to eat."

Between 8am and 6pm, residents and volunteers went to the church with donations and offers of assistance.

Mayisha added: "This is our second collection and, although we had a good response, our first venue was quite small."

"Thanks to Sister Christine Frost, who runs St Matthias with scores of volunteers, we have a bigger venue and we've been able to collect and label more items."

Mayisha has arranged transport to deliver the donations to aid organisations who will distribute to refugee camps in Calais and Dunkirk on October 24 and 25. Convoy to Calais plans to hold another collection in early October.

Mayisha said tinned food and winter clothing were especially needed.

Supermarket is just the job

A NEW Tesco Metro was opened by Mayor John Biggs.

Eighty new jobs have been created at the Roman Road store, which have been predominantly filled by local residents.

In addition, a regeneration partnership between Tesco and Jobcentre Plus will see a third of the jobs going to long-term unemployed local people, who have been offered positions following the completion of a course.

As part of its Tesco Bow Community Fund, the company will also be sharing £3,000 among local charities – the Lower Regents Canal Coalition, Arbour Youth Club, Stepney City Farm, AbilityBow, The Ragged School Museum and the 2nd East London Scouts.

Residents will be able to vote for the charity they think should receive a donation and the top three with the most votes will each be awarded a grant of £1,000.

Cllr Joshua Peck, council cabinet member for economic growth and local ward councillor, said: "Since Morrisons closed almost a decade ago, Bow residents have suffered from not having a local supermarket.

"Tesco will make a daily difference to local people and the increased footfall will support the market and shops here."

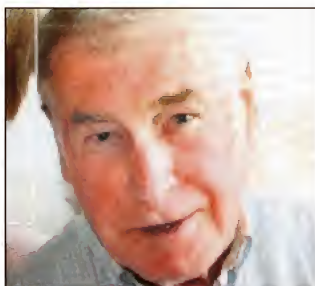

Fears grow for missing John

POLICE are appealing for help to find a missing 80-year-old man from Poplar.

John Heatley, a regular at the Baxter Court pub in Hackney, was last seen at 4.40pm on Sunday, September 13, in the Mare Street area of Hackney.

He is white, 5ft 6ins tall, of average build, with medium length grey hair.

At the time of his disappearance, he was wearing a blue Barbour-style quilted jacket, dark blue jumper, black trousers, and black shoes.

Officers are increasingly concerned for his wellbeing.

Anyone with information on his whereabouts should call police on 101 or Missing People on 116000, quoting Merlin reference 15MISO36383.

Man is sought over attack

DETECTIVES investigating an assault on a woman, have issued this image of a man they want to speak to.

Police were called to a pub in Brick Lane on Sunday, August 23, at 6.30am.

A 27-year-old woman had met a man in Westminster before they travelled to Brick Lane.

The pub was closed but the garden area open. When the woman decided to leave, the man punched and kicked her, and tried to pull off her clothes.

The woman suffered minor injuries but ran away.

The man is black and slim with short hair. He wore a blue cap, grey zipped hooded top, jeans and black trainers.

Anyone with information should call police on 101 quoting reference number 188656.

'ACHIEVING EXCELLENCE BY UNLOCKING POTENTIAL'

Raine's Foundation School

I fully understand how important it is to you as parents and carers to select the right secondary school for your son or daughter.

You will want the school to provide your child with opportunities to develop socially and academically in an environment which is challenging, caring and supportive. Raine's Foundation school is able to offer these opportunities.

Raine's offers something different. We are a smaller than average secondary school where pupils are taught on two separate sites. Having Years 7 and 8 together in their own 'mini-school' removes many of the challenges that face pupils when they transfer to secondary school and makes the transition easier. This also means pupils are recognised as individuals, which enables support to be tailored to their needs.

Raine's Foundation Church of England Secondary School is one of the oldest schools in London and we have played an important role in the East End for nearly 300 years. Raine's is an all ability co-educational school for girls and boys aged 11-19. Raine's is truly comprehensive and fully inclusive. The School is rightly proud of its long tradition of achievement within a Christian ethos and welcomes pupils from all faiths, and those with none.

2015 saw a rise in our 5A*-C (Eng and Maths) by 9%.

Attainment in English and Maths is above national average.

Make sure you can vote for London mayor

THE council is visiting hundreds of households across the borough to ensure that the electoral register is up to date.

The borough-wide canvass is part of the council's preparations for the 2016 London Mayor and Assembly elections, scheduled to take place on May 5, 2016.

In addition to the visits, every household will receive a letter requesting details of everyone who is eligible to vote to be confirmed.

The system of registration changed to Individual Electoral Registration (IER) in June 2014, meaning that every eligible resident is responsible for their own registration; one person can no longer register on behalf of the household.

Residents can register online at www.gov.uk/register-to-vote or electoral services can post a form – to find out more call 7364 0872.

Best Value Plan update

BY STAFF REPORTER

THE council has updated the government on the improvements it has made to key processes.

The council submitted a six-month update to Secretary of State Greg Clark, outlining progress against its Best Value Plan.

The plan was developed in response to government concerns about allocation of grants, disposal of council assets and use of publicity, which resulted in the government issuing directions to the council and the appointment of commissioners.

Ninety-one per cent of the items identified in the council's plan have been completed or are due to be completed in line with the targets set.

Mayor John Biggs said: "During this six-month period, and particularly in the last three months since I took over as mayor, considerable progress has been made, and the foundations set for further improvement over the next few months.

"My ambition is to ensure that we satisfy the requirements set down in the directions but I am keen to go beyond a 'tick box' exercise of simply satisfying those conditions, and completing the individual actions in the Best Value Plan."

The council has recently appointed Will Tuckley, former chief executive of the London Borough of Bexley, as its new chief, along with a new director of law, probity and governance and a new corporate director of resources.

Other key achievements include:

- improvements to procurement practices, with tightened controls and spend analysis to reduce costs;

- a completely new mainstream grants programme, which has been developed through an open, transparent commissioning process with a clear focus on third sector delivery of outcomes which progress the council's community plan priorities;

- a clear decision-making process in respect of property disposals has been established and used to sign off a number of transactions;

- a revised communications protocol has been established and work undertaken to develop online approaches to communicating with residents.

A communications review will be carried out and the council's weekly publication, East End Life, will be moving to a fortnightly frequency in the short term, with a commitment from the mayor to ensure the council is compliant with the Code of Recommended Practice on Local Authority Publicity by March 2016.

The council's progress will next be reported in a 12-month update, due to be submitted to the government in March 2016.

WEAPONS including a sword, a kitchen knife (pictured) and a lock knife were among items found when police officers from Tower Hamlets gangs unit carried out a sweep in Rounton Road, Bow. Items recovered during the search on Tuesday, September 8, have been taken away for forensic analysis. Detective Inspector Andy Gravestock, from Tower Hamlets gangs unit, said: "This weapon sweep has been a success. "We will continue to do our utmost to make Tower Hamlets as safe as possible for residents and visitors."

Community 'fairness' plan

EQUALITY, cohesion and community leadership are at the heart of a plan for the borough, unveiled at the Town Hall on Wednesday, September 8.

At the council's cabinet Mayor John Biggs, together with health, police and community groups, agreed a 'community plan' after listening to the views of residents and partners.

The plan identifies priorities for the borough and 'fairness' will be its key focus, ensuring all residents benefit from the borough's economic growth.

The partnership will now work together to:

- empower residents to better support themselves and each other;

- promote healthier lives by addressing inequalities in health;
- increase employment to tackle the jobless rate, especially among women and some ethnic minority groups;

- respond to population growth managing it effectively, providing sufficient infrastructure and supporting local people to benefit from the changes.

Exciting changes to our constitution

News from council opposition leaders

SINCE June, there have been a number of actions regarding the governance and management of the council.

Following directions by the government, the council has now completed the process of appointing full-time holders of the three senior offices of the council. This was concluded by confirming Will Tuckley as chief executive at a special council meeting in August.

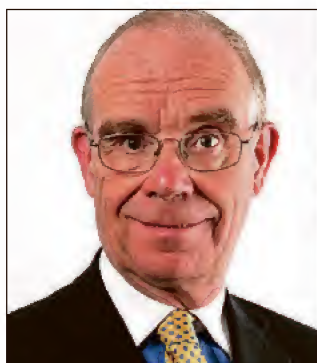

This will be the first occasion, for some years, that these positions have been held by full-time holders, as opposed to interim appointments. This will certainly change the dynamics of the council.

For this municipal year, I have been appointed by the overview and scrutiny committee to overview the council's work on law, proberty and governance.

There have, over recent years, been concerns raised as to the operation of the council's standards process. I have already held a productive initial meeting with officers and the independent standards personnel to seek ways to bring improvements before the committee, to feed through to the council.

Early in October, the constitutional working party will be meeting to revitalise and update the constitution and standing orders of the council.

The unfolding localism agenda is an opportunity for community and councillor involvement and a revitalised constitution, incorporating changes that have been embraced by authorities across the political spectrum, will see some exciting and innovative changes to our governance.

There is a genuine enthusiasm to take the authority around the borough. One of the most successful scrutiny meetings in recent years was held in Bow, with a notably high attendance and engagement by the public.

A major task of members who are not part of the executive is to scrutinise the decisions of the executive. Since June of this year there has been a definite move to achieve more transparency within the decision-making process and this can only lead to better government.

In a democracy there will always be political differences, but there is no evidence that any government – local, regional or national – has ever been harmed by questions and scrutiny.

This can only be for the benefit of residents. Government is strong and effective when it is challenged. When unchallenged, we see poor decision-making.

No process is ever ideal, but there is no doubt that the move to a more open authority will benefit all. To achieve this, however, the opposition will have to work as hard as the administration.

Cllr Whitelock Gibbs and Dr Banerjee at the Stoptober launch

STOPTOBER, the nation's biggest campaign to get people to quit smoking, begins next month. Smokers in Tower Hamlets are being urged to sign up and stub out smoking for 28 days and beyond. Last year, more than 500 residents took part and the borough's stop smoking service is expecting a similar rush this year. Cllr Amy Whitelock Gibbs, council cabinet member for health, said: "Each year, it costs our local NHS around £14 million to support people with smoking-related illnesses. And the human cost is even higher; smoking is the biggest cause of premature death in the borough." Evidence shows that if a smoker can go 28 days without a cigarette, they are five times more likely to give up for good. This year, the start of Stoptober coincides with new legislation in England and Wales, making it illegal to smoke in a car with someone under the age of 18 present.

Dr Somen Banerjee, council director of public health, said: "More than 430,000 children are exposed to second-hand smoke in cars each week, according to the British Lung Foundation, increasing the risk of chest infections such as bronchitis." Visit www.smokefree.nhs.uk/stoptober

Vote for youth issues

BY MICHAEL DIOP

YOUNG people are being asked to make sure issues that matter to them are discussed in Parliament.

The National Youth Parliament debate at the House of Commons on November 13 will cover topics suggested by young people.

The young mayor of Tower Hamlets, Deng Yan San, and the borough's Youth Council are keen to ensure local young people are involved.

Youngsters have until Friday, October 9 to choose from ten issues, including lowering the voting age to 16, improving mental health services, protecting youth services from cuts and tackling racism and religious discrimination.

The UK Youth Parliament has more than 600 members who represent young people at a national, regional and local level.

Last year's Make Your Mark ballot saw an increase of 400,000 to more than 875,000 young people, making it the largest youth consultation in the country.

This year, Members of the Youth Parliament (MYPs) have set themselves an ambitious target of getting one million people to take part.

"I was honoured to be elected young mayor in an election which saw a massive turnout of almost 72 per cent," Deng told East End Life.

"It's clear that young people are engaged in the issues which affect their lives, and they want to play an active role in shaping policies. I'm urging all young people to get involved in Make Your Mark. Look at the issues and choose those which you feel most passionately about.

"I'm confident that we can get 5,000 young people in the borough to get involved and play our part in encouraging one million voices to be heard."

The five most popular topics chosen will be discussed by MYPs in their November debate, chaired by the Speaker, John Bercow MP, and broadcast live on BBC Parliament.

Voting takes place online and through ballot papers issued in schools and youth clubs. Schools that have already signed up include George Green's, Central Foundation Girls' and Madani Girls.

Students can speak to a member of staff to get the whole school involved, or sign up to Make Your Mark themselves.

Mayor John Biggs said: "All of the subjects in the final top ten are really important issues that have a direct effect on the lives of thousands of young people in Tower Hamlets.

"I am pleased to join our young mayor in encouraging as many young people as possible to get involved."

Embroidered altar cloths are a gift for all seasons

EMBROIDERED altar cloths were presented to St Paul with St Luke C of E Primary School in Bow at a special assembly on September 7.

The cloths, which took a year to make, were created to mark the close relationship between St Paul's Bow Common Church and the school.

"Ms Wright, the deputy head, came up with the idea of a cloth to put on the table used in collective worship," said vicar Mother Bernadette Hegarty.

"When we discussed it in church, we decided we would like to make it.

"As the church uses different colours during the year to mark different seasons, we decided we would do a cloth for each one – Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, Pentecost and ordinary time.

Burnette, Jeanette, Mother Bernadette, Safia and Debra

"There are additional cloths representing two occasions that we know are special to the school – harvest and remembrance."

Community organisation

Stitches in Time offered to put the fabric together and a group met weekly to embroider the cloths with seasonal symbols.

The church held a service where the cloths were blessed and presented to head teacher Ms Horton, who expressed her thanks on behalf of the school.

BY JESSICA ODUBAYO

CYRIL Jackson Primary School in Limehouse has been rated by Ofsted as 'outstanding'.

Results of an inspection in July by the education watchdog were spelt out at the beginning of term this September.

And the school was found to be outstanding in leadership and management, behaviour and safety of pupils, quality of teaching, achievement of pupils and early years provision.

Head teacher Gillian Kemp said: "We're thrilled with this result. The staff and governors are very talented and hard-working – it also shows how hard our children work, how sensibly they behave, and how well they develop in their learning and independence.

"It also shows how lucky we are to have such supportive parents who work closely with us to help everybody achieve as much as they can."

Ms Kemp continued: "This outcome was a real team effort with the leadership team, governors, teaching staff, administrative staff, pupils, parents and wider school community all playing an important part.

"Our aim for the future is to maintain our high standards and we know our parents, staff and governors will continue to support us as we do."

News from the council's community safety team

NEXT week, Tower Hamlets safer neighbourhood board hosts its third residents' question time.

Metropolitan Police borough commander Andy Ewing will be joined by representatives from the council's community safety team to answer questions from local people.

The first of these public meetings took place in June on the Isle of Dogs with a second session held last month in Poplar with panel members including Cllr Shiria Khatun, council cabinet member for community safety, and commander Ewing.

They have been a really useful exercise in helping us to identify problem areas and crime hotspots, to enable the council and the police to be more targeted with our resources.

This latest event, on Wednesday, September 30 in Spitalfields and Banglatown, takes place at the Osmani Centre, 58 Underwood Road, E1 at 6.30pm. It will be another chance to hear directly about any community safety or anti-social behaviour (ASB) concerns you may have.

The board was established in August last year as part of the mayor of London's plans for boroughs to be more open about crime and policing.

The meeting will be attended by the London Mayor's Office for Policing and Crime (MOPAC), and members from local police ward panels, Neighbourhood Watch, Independent Custody Visitors and the Independent Advisory Group.

The key objective of these meetings is to allow residents to raise concerns directly to the police and council – so I urge you to take this opportunity to attend.

If you can't make any of these sessions, then you can always report ASB, including noise or other environmental concerns, through the council's website.

As well as contacting the council, we encourage residents to call 101, the police non-emergency phone number, to report ASB, crime or other concerns that do not require an emergency response.

You may remember that crime and ASB concerns were the reasons behind 20 community safety surgeries and walkabouts that have taken place across the borough.

The surgeries and walkabouts took place over the past year and we have now produced 'action taken' leaflets for each area.

These can be viewed on our website and they explain what issues were identified at these sessions.

They describe what the council, police, relevant housing associations or other agencies have done to alleviate some of these concerns.

You can view our action taken leaflets at <http://bit.ly/1vNPkBi>

The council is also looking into promoting awareness among young people of the ten strands that form the community safety team's strategy to combat Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG).

The VAWG plan was enacted in January 2013 and encompasses our work to help prevent sexual violence, domestic abuse, people trafficking, prostitution, child sexual exploitation, female genital mutilation (FGM), forced marriage, so-called 'honour-based' violence, dowry related abuse, and stalking and harassment across the borough.

We will be concentrating on raising awareness of all these crimes among the borough's young people over the coming months, leading up to when we join in with the annual White Ribbon and 16 Days of Action international campaigns.

Memorial to 43 killed by Blitz bomb

A NEW memorial to honour those who died in a Second World War bombing has been unveiled in Bethnal Green.

On Monday, September 7, 1940 – the first night of the Blitz – 43 people were killed when an air-raid shelter in Columbia Market suffered a direct hit.

At a memorial service, attended by survivors, their families, Mayor John Biggs and local dignitaries, a plaque was unveiled in the Rose Garden at Ravenscroft Park.

The ceremony was the culmination of many years of hard work by the Columbia Market War Memorial Group and took place exactly 75 years to the day after the tragedy.

Trevor Wood from the group told East End Life: "The 43 men, women and children were killed when a bomb was dropped on the old Columbia Market Hall, the cellar of which was being used as an official air raid shelter.

"The dead amount to 15 per cent of all those lost on the first night of the Blitz.

"We decided to try to raise funds to commemorate it as we felt it important that they should no longer be forgotten.

"Many of the victims were buried in mass graves and had no markers so this stone will act as a Cenotaph for local civilians.

"All funds have been raised by victims and survivors' families and local people including through pub quizzes and raffles."

News in brief

Garden group call

THE council's Clean and Green team is looking to bring together a group of people to care for a community garden on Lark Row (off Vyner Street, beside Regent's Canal).

The site contains a number of raised beds that could be used to grow food, herbs or flowers.

Tools, initial plants and advice on how to care for them will be provided for free in exchange for time and commitment to maintaining the garden.

A museum hidden inside a church crypt has been recognised by VisitEngland. Jessica Odubayo reports.

The museum is small, but full of fascinating glimpses into medical history

Museum has a mark of quality

A TINY museum, tucked away in a church in Whitechapel, has won praise from the national tourist board for England.

The Royal London Hospital Museum was recognised by VisitEngland for giving visitors a "quality experience" due its powerful storytelling – one of the first attractions in the country to be given the award.

The museum, which opened in 1989, showcases the history of the world-famous hospital.

Many visitors, including hospital staff and former patients, drop by to learn about the innovative treatments and foundation for modern-day nursing pioneered at the London, which have paved the way for much of today's world-leading NHS care.

Jonathan Evans, archivist at Barts Health NHS Trust, said: "I am delighted that our years of work to bring to life the fascinating history of The Royal London Hospital has been recognised through this accolade.

"Our little museum aims to tell the hospital's story as a stalwart of the local community.

"We would encourage everyone to visit us to discover the origins of some of the life-saving medical procedures developed right on our doorstep and now regularly in use across the world, as well as to have fun exploring the workings of the country's greatest medical minds over the last 275 years."

Among the museum's popular works are displays and films on the life of Joseph Merrick, commonly known as the Elephant Man, who lived at The Royal London Hospital until his death in 1890, and his doctor, the Royal surgeon Sir Frederick Treves.

in public is displayed in the museum. Visitors can also see false teeth made for the first President of America, George Washington and a letter written by him to his dentist in 1795.

People can also explore a showcase on forensic medicine featuring original material on the notorious Whitechapel Jack the Ripper murders, and hospital surgeon and curator Thomas Horrocks Openshaw who helped to investigate the crimes.

For would-be nurses, the museum offers much on the long history of nursing, as well as a display showing original uniforms worn through the years.

Information includes the life and work of Edith Cavell, a nurse who was executed by a German firing squad in 1915 for helping some 200 Allied soldiers escape

A bust of nurse Edith Cavell, who was executed by firing squad

German-occupied Belgium during the First World War.

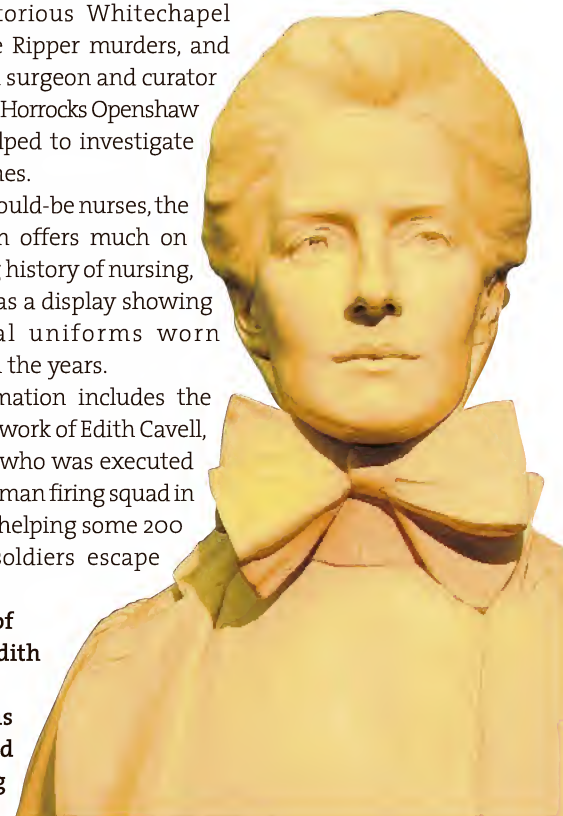

A pioneer in nurse training, Cavell trained and worked at The Royal London, and the museum is involved in national events to mark the centenary of her death this October.

The museum also has a permanent exhibition of artefacts and archives relating to the hospital and the history of healthcare in the East End including surgical instruments, medical and nursing equipment, uniforms, medals, works of art, written archives and printed books.

The museum is located in the former crypt of St Philip's Church in Newark Street, Whitechapel.

Visitors can go to the museum Tuesday to Friday, from 10am-4.30pm, but are advised to check that it will be open by calling 7377 7608.

Entry is free, but donations are welcome.

Caught up in the Rapture

BY SAM GOUGH

IF you live, work or study in Tower Hamlets and are looking for an outlet for your creative energies, the council's 'A' Team Arts has news for you.

From September 24, young people in the borough can take part in free rap, music production and drama sessions every Thursday evening at the Brady Arts Centre in Hanbury Street.

Anyone unable to attend the first session because they are celebrating Eid can still go along the following week on October 1.

Participants will work with other young people on Rapture – a production that will allow you to compose your own raps and spoken word pieces, as well as take part in the Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

Rapture will tell the story of a young

'A' Team Arts rehearsals at last year's sessions

Muslim woman called AJ, who lives in Tower Hamlets and wears a hijab. She writes rap lyrics, but knows her parents would not approve of her involvement in the hip hop scene.

As a result, she enrolls the help of her best friend, Sam, to dub perform them.

Sam gets the acclaim and the credit for AJ's political, honest lyrics, and AJ's talents go largely unnoticed.

'A' Team Arts is looking for young people to join these sessions and help to devise the show.

It is looking for young actors who can rap, and young rappers who can act, as well as actors for lead and supporting roles. Auditions will be held during October half-term for those who attend the workshops.

Cllr Asma Begum, council cabinet member for culture, said: “Participating in the arts at a young age has so many advantages.

“It helps to build confidence, gives you the chance to make new friends, and gives you transferrable skills that will help in future career choices.”

Sessions run from 6.30-9pm at the Brady Centre, 192-196 Hanbury Street, E1.

Anyone aged between 13 and 19 can attend the sessions. People aged up to 25 who have special education needs are also welcome.

History

Buried beneath the sands of time

BY JOHN RENNIE

LAST week we looked at the jumble of tiny churchyards in and around the City of London, and the massive pits sunk to contain the victims of London's frequent outbreaks of plague.

Sometimes London seemed too small to contain its dead – the Square Mile and its overspill, overcrowded slums of Spitalfields and Shoreditch could barely contain their living.

But even the 'new' East End, the hamlets of Mile End, Bow and Bromley, which became swallowed by the creep eastwards of London in the 1800s, have their old burial grounds, many now hidden, forgotten or simply paved over.

Some had very brief lives indeed. The most famous is the giant Tower Hamlets Cemetery, now beautifully brought back to life (so to speak) as Tower Hamlets Cemetery Park. But there are other, smaller gems, if you know where to look. Some, however, will demand that you look very carefully indeed.

St Mary's Churchyard, Bow is still there of course, though precariously marooned as an island of the dead in the middle of the Bow Road, just west of the Bow flyover.

Nearby is the rather sad residue of another St Mary's, that of Bromley St Leonard. The Saxon church was bombed in the war, and the A12 now runs over its old footprint. The graveyard remains as a wild space of overgrown grass and half toppled tombstones.

The old Roman Catholic burial ground at Wade's Place, meanwhile, has been reinvented as the playground of the Holy Family RC Primary School. Bow's old Baptist chapel is long gone too, now under a modern building as, presumably, are most of the graves.

Down to the East India Dock Road, and another non-conformist burial ground. All that remains of the Trinity Congregational Chapel's burial ground is a large grassy space, with the gravestones all cleared away.

Alternatives to the mainstream Church of England proved hugely popular in the East End of the 1800s – the spirit of 'Congregationalism', whereby each church ran its own affairs rather than bowing to the central control of Canterbury, seemed to particularly appeal to the independent and frequently anti-authoritarian East Enders.

So on Cable Street we find the St George's Wesleyan Chapel ground, now transformed into gardens. The nearby New Road Congregational Chapel yard, off Cannon Street Road, is now a large grassy area, tucked behind Norton House on the Bigland Estate.

And the Ebenezer Chapel burial ground, on St George's Street, is now an innocuous strip of grass and footpath, next to St George's swimming pool on The Highway.

Another curiosity of the lost East End is the Scandinavian influence (which we looked at a few years ago in the piece about lost 'Wellclose').

The Swedish church in Prince's Square sadly disappeared in 1908, leaving the burial ground, a "rather scruffy grass area with a font-like memorial from Sweden".

The Danish (or 'mariners') church in Wellclose Square is similarly departed (along with Wellclose Square itself, the victim of short-sighted post-war developers), and the old graveyard now lies beneath the playground and garden of St Paul's Primary School.

Back towards Wapping we discover the Congregational Chapel-ground in Old Gravel Lane (now renamed Wapping Lane). You'll struggle to find any evidence of the site now, with the footprint now hidden beneath a row of shops with apartments above.

The difficulty of finding the old sites is only increased by the fact that many of the streets have themselves undergone name changes. The Baptist Burial-ground lay on Wapping's Broad Street, now renamed Reardon Street, and it had a long history. Established as far back as 1633, it was at the nexus of Johnson Street (now Chandler Street), Love Lane (now Meeting House Lane) and the aforementioned Broad Street.

Clear enough? And for good measure, the old chapel and graveyard were themselves buried beneath a school, built in the late 19th century.

On into Whitechapel and we're on the site of the old parish church of St Mary's, lost to enemy bombing during the Second World War (the parish also gave its name to the old Whitechapel St Mary's Tube station, of which no trace at all remains these days, above ground at least).

The churchyard was cleared to become St Mary's Park and is now Altab Ali Park. Among the famous occupants of the old cemetery are Sir John Cass and Richard Brandon, a 17th-century English hangman often named as the executioner of King Charles I. The nearby Friends burial ground in Baker Row, meanwhile, was reinvented as Vallance Gardens, with a children's playground alongside.

Of course, outside the Christian faith, perhaps the biggest influence on the East End was Judaism.

Today, you'd struggle to find much of a Jewish flavour to the eastern fringes of the City, but the influx of Jews into the East End during the late 19th century, driven by the pogroms and persecution in Eastern Europe, saw an already sizeable London Jewish population grow to around 150,000.

Over the course of the 20th century that population dispersed again, as people moved upwards and outwards, to north and east London, and Essex. They left several old cemeteries behind them – now unused, but frequently still carefully tended.

There is the famous Betahayim Velho, or Old Sephardi Cemetery: tucked behind 253 Mile End Road, it's the oldest Jewish cemetery in Britain, opened in 1657.

Nearby is the Betahayim Nuevo, or New Cemetery, opened in 1725. Set behind the Faculty of Laws building of Queen Mary University of London, the graves can be seen from a car park behind the arts building. The old wall of the cemetery forms the border on the Mile End Road.

Alderney Road, meanwhile, has the country's oldest Ashkenazi cemetery, opened in 1696, Brady Street the later Askhkenazi cemetery, dating from 1761, and Bancroft Road the Cemetery of the Maiden Lane Synagogue.

So grab your map and start digging up the past... but not literally, of course.

Olympic parking plans

THE council is seeking views on a proposed Controlled Parking Zone (CPZ) on Fish Island.

A consultation event will be held on Thursday, September 24, from 9.30am-8.30pm at Hub67, in Rothbury Road, Hackney Wick, E9.

Workshops and drop-in sessions will inform residents how a CPZ operates and how different operational hours work.

There will also be information on sustainable forms of transport, reducing Co2 emissions and creating and maintaining a safe and efficient traffic flow.

Workshops take place from 9.30am-12noon; 2.30-5pm; and

Have your say on the CPZ

6.30-8.30pm. Drop-ins run from 1.30-2.30pm and 5.30-6.30pm. The council is proposing parking controls on Fish Island because of increased parking pressure.

The Olympic Park has already begun hosting events such as the Rugby World Cup and will be the permanent home of West Ham Football Club.

Controls will help traffic flow and mean better parking for residents and businesses.

Both Hackney and Newham are introducing controls to manage parking generated by the Olympic Park within their boroughs.

If Fish Island remains free of parking controls, the council fears residents and businesses will find it very difficult to park.

Qorshaha dhisida iskuulada degmada

Plans for more school places – issue 1077

QORSHE ujeedadiisu tahay in Tower Hamlets laga dhiso iskuulo cusub, oo ay ku jiraan iskuulada caruurta yaryar lagu hayo.

Qorshahan waxa lagu ansixiyey kulankii wasiirada councilka ee qabsoomay 8dii Setembar.

Miisaaniyada la ogolaadayna waxa ka mid ahaa in la balaadhiyo Whitehorse One O’Clock Club oo ku yaala Stepney, iyo in la bedelo qalab cusubna lagu sameeeyo xafiiska dhir ilaaliyayaasha Bethnal Green ee ku dhex yaala Bethnal Green Gardens.

Mashruucan Bethnal Green wuxu u gogol xaadhayaa in la helo 60 meelood oo maalinta oo dhan lagu hayo carruurta da,doodu tahay laba sanadood, marka Whitehorse balaadhintiisu dhamaatana waxa la helayaa 80-100 meelood oo saacado maalinta ka mid ah lagu hayo carruurta iyo 40 meelood oo maalinta oo dhan lagu hayo carruurta da,doodu tahay laba sanadood.

Wax kale oo jiraya in la horumariyo barkulan ay qoysasku leeyihiin oo laga samaynayo agagaarka Ocean Estate, halka-asoo dhamaan adeegyada laisugu keenayo.

Councilku wuxu qorsheeyey in la dhiso iskuulo dheeraad ah, si loo daboolo baahida iskuulada ee sii kordhaysa, waxana qorshaysan in la meeleeyo 9,000 arday, oo dheeraad ah oo isugu jira ardayda dhigata iskuulada hoose iyo sare ilaa 2025ka.

Qorshaha waxa lagu saleeyey qiyaasta baahida ilaa hada, waxana jira 3000 meelood oo dugsiyada hoose lagu kordhiyey ilaa 2008dii, mana jiro ilmo iskuul loo waayey.

Warbixin ay soo bandhigeen wasiirada councilku, waxa ku jirey hindise ah in iskuul sare oo cusub laga dhiso London Dock, iyo in iskuul hoose laga dhiso Neptune Wharf. Waxa kale oo a isla ogolaaday in la horumariyo Wood Wharf, lagana dhiso iskuul hoose oo cusub.

Duqa John Biggs ayaa wuxu yidhi: “Inkastoo uu cadaadis badani ka jiro Tower Hamlets, hadana waan ku kalsoonahay inaanu daboolayno baahiyaha dadweynaha, waxaanuna hubinaynaa inaanay degmadan ka jirin ilmo aan iskuul helin.”

Rachael Saunders, oo ah ku xigeenka duqa iyo xubin wasiir oo qaabilsan waxbarashada iyo adeegyada caruurta, ayaa yidhi: “Balaadhinta Whitehorse One O’ Clock Club iyo meesha cusub ee caruurta lagu xanaaneeyo ee Bethnal Green ayaa waxay daboolayaan baahidii loo qabay meelaynta caruurteena yaryar.

“Waxaan soo dhaweynayaa in la hubiyo in ilma kastaa helo meel lagu xanaaneeyo ama iskuul ay ku koraan kuna faraxsan yihiin.”

Ganaaxa dabaynta tilifoonka

Fine for selling unsafe phone chargers – issue 1077

GANACSADE suuqa Whitechapel ku ganacsanaya ayaa dembi lagu xukumay, kadib markii lagu qabtay isagoo dadweynaha si badheedh ah uga iibinayaa waxyaabaha tilifoonada lagu dabeeeyo oo halis ah.

Abdul Al-Saedy’s ayaa miiska uu alaabta ku iibiyo, waxa baadhay booliiska iyo saraakiisha heerka ganacsi ee councilka bishii Oktoobar iyo Noofambar 2013kii, wuxuna qayb ka ahaa falkii ciidan ee Big Wing iyo Dulux.

Baadhitaanka kediska ahaa waxaa loo qorsheeyey in laga hortago meelaha lagu hayo ama lagu iibinayo waxyaabaha tuugada ah, tilifoonada iyo walxaha lagu dabeeeyo ee foobariga ah. Walxaha tilifoonada lagu dabeeeyo ee gacanta lagu dhigay, waxa la ogaaday inay yihiin khatar sababi karta dhimasho ama dhaawac halis ah marka la isticmaalayo.

Al-Saedy oo cinwaankiisu yahay Hall Tower, Maida Vale, ayaa qirtay inuu galay dembiyada ku qeexan xeerka ilaalinta macaamiisha ee soo baxay 1987kii.

Al-Saedy waxa maxkmada la hor keenay 20kii Oogosto, waxana la ganaaxay £300, waxana lagu amray inuu bixiyo qiimihii maxkamada oo ahaa £1,200 iyo takhsiirta dhibanaha oo dhamaa £30.

Walxaha tilifoonada lagu dabeeeyo ee qaataan dadka socdaalaya ayaa wuxu ka horyimi sharciyada ay tahay in laga helo qalabka korontada la xidhiidha ee xeerka amniga ee soo baxay 1994kii. Xildhibaan Shiria Khatun, oo ah kuxigeenka duqa degmada iyo xubin wasiir oo qaabilsan amniga bulshada, ayaa waxay tidhi: “Wada shaqaynta wanaagsan ee ka dhaxaysa booliiska iyo saraakiishayada heerka ganacsiga ayaa waxay suurtagal ka dhigtay in suuqa laga dhameeyo qalabka khatarta iyo foobariga ah.

“Sharciyada wuxu muujiyey inaanu badbaadinta dadweynaha si dhab ah u qaadan, iyo inaanu joojinta iibinta qalabka khatarta ah si adag wax uga qabanayno.”

Hadaad ka shakido been abuur iyo alaab foobariga ah oo laga ganacsanayo, waxaad wacdaa 7364 5008, ama email u dir tradingstandards@towerhamlets.gov.uk

কাউন্সিলের অগ্রগতির রিপোর্ট জানানো হলো সরকারকে

Tower Hamlets getting back on track – page 5

কাউন্সিলের মূল প্রক্রিয়াসমূহে কী ধরনের অগ্রগতি সাধিত হয়েছে, সে সম্পর্কে টাওয়ার হ্যামলেটস্ কাউন্সিল ১৫ সেপ্টেম্বর সরকারকে অবহিত করেছে।

বেস্ট ভেলু পরিকল্পনায় যে দিকগুলো নির্দিষ্ট করা হয়েছিলো, সেগুলোতে গত ৬ মাসে অর্জিত অগ্রগতি সম্পর্কে একটি প্রতিবেদন সেক্রেটারী অব স্টেট শ্রেণি ক্লাব এর কাছে জমা দিয়েছে কাউন্সিল।

আর্থিক অনুদান বরাদ্দ, কাউন্সিলের এসেট বিক্রি এবং পাবলিটি বা প্রচারণার ব্যবহার নিয়ে সরকারের উদ্দেশ্যের শ্রেণিতে কাউন্সিল একটি বেস্ট ভেলু প্ল্যান তৈরী করেছিলো। সরকার ঐ সময় কাউন্সিল পরিচালনার জন্য একটি নির্দেশনাবলী জারি করে এবং কয়েকজন কমিশনারকে নিয়োগ দেয়।

কাউন্সিলের পরিকল্পনায় চিহ্নিত আইটেম সমূহের ৯১ শতাংশই সম্পন্ন হয়েছে অথবা নির্ধারিত লক্ষ্যমাত্রার আলোকে তা যথাসময়ে শেষ হবে।

মেয়র, জন বিগস এ প্রসঙ্গে বলেন, এই ৬ মাস সময়কালে, বিশেষ করে মেয়র হিসেবে আমি দায়িত্ব নেয়ার পর গত তিন মাসে নানা ক্ষেত্রে অনেক লক্ষ্যনীয় অগ্রগতি সাধিত হয়েছে এবং পরবর্তী কয়েক মাসের মধ্যে আরো উন্নতি নিশ্চিত করার মতো ভিত্তি তৈরী করা হয়েছে।

মেয়র বলেন, সরকারের ডিরেকশনস্ বা নির্দেশনাবলীতে যে রিকোয়ারমেন্টগুলো নির্ধারিত করা হয়েছে, তা সন্তোষজনকভাবে অর্জন করাই আমার লক্ষ্য। তবে আমি চাই না শুধু বক্স এর পাশে টিক দিয়ে কাজ সম্পাদন করতে। আমি চাই বেস্ট ভেলু প্ল্যানে চিহ্নিত অগ্রাধিকারগুলো সন্তোষজনকভাবে বাস্তবায়ন করে টাওয়ার হ্যামলেটসের সর্বস্তরের বাসিন্দা, ব্যবসায়ী ও ভিজিটরদের জন্য সেরা মানের সার্ভিস প্রদান নিশ্চিত করা।

উল্লেখ্য, কাউন্সিল সম্প্রতি নতুন চিফ এক্সিকিউটিভ হিসেবে বেক্সলি কাউন্সিলে চিফ এক্সিকিউটিভ উইল টাকলিকে নিয়োগ দিয়েছে।

এছাড়া নতুন ডিরেক্টর অব ল’, প্রোবিটি এন্ড গভর্ন্যান্স এবং কর্পোরেট ডিরেক্টর অব রিসোর্স নিয়োগ দেয়া হয়েছে।

অন্যান্য প্রধান অর্জনগুলোর মধ্যে রয়েছে ব্যয় কমানোর লক্ষ্যে ক্রয় প্রক্রিয়ায় নিয়ন্ত্রণ ও মূল্যায়ন জোরদার করণ; সর্বোচ্চ স্বচ্ছতা ও কমিউনিটি প্ল্যানে নির্ধারিত অগ্রাধিকার সমূহ অর্জনের লক্ষ্যে মেইনস্ট্রিম গ্র্যান্টস প্রোগ্রাম সম্পন্ন করণ; স্বচ্ছতার সাথে কাউন্সিল প্রোপার্টি ডিসপোজাল প্রক্রিয়া বাস্তবায়ন; সংশোধিত কমিউনিকেশনস্ প্রোটোকল কার্যকর করণ। কমিউনিকেশন নীতিমালা পূণঃপর্যালোচনা করা হবে এবং কাউন্সিলের উইকলি পাবলিকেশন ইস্ট এন্ড লাইভ স্বল্পকালীন সময়ের জন্য পাবলিকভাবে প্রকাশিত হবে।

“কাউন্সিল এবং বারায় ইতিবাচক পরিবর্তন আনতে কমিশনারদের সাথে অত্যন্ত ঘনিষ্ঠভাবে কাজ করার অভিপ্রায়ে” কথা জানিয়েছেন মেয়র বিগস।

ওসেন এস্টেটের উন্নয়ন কাজ পরিদর্শন করলেন মেয়র বিগস্

Demolition next stage in transformation of Ocean – 1077

ওসেন এস্টেট পূণঃউন্নয়ন প্রকল্পের সাম্প্রতিক পর্যায়ে কাজ দেখতে মেয়র জন বিগস্ গত সপ্তাহে প্রকল্প এলাকা পরিদর্শন করেন। বিশাল এই উন্নয়নের প্রকল্পের এই পর্বে তিনটি পুরনো ও ব্যবহার অনুপযোগী বিল্ডিং (এ্যালনবি, শ্যানেল এবং স্টাডল্যান্ড হাউজ) ভেঙ্গে ফেলা হচ্ছে। এই স্থলে ২২৫টি নতুন ঘর নির্মান করা হবে। এর অর্ধেকেরও বেশি (১২১ প্রোপার্টি) হবে সামর্থ্যহীন ভাড়ার ও শেয়ার্ড ওনারশিপের।

প্রকল্প এলাকা পরিদর্শনকালে মেয়র জন বিগস্ এর সাথে আরো ছিলেন কাউন্সিলের গুরুত্বপূর্ণ উন্নয়ন অংশিদার ইস্ট টেমস্ হাউজিং এসোসিয়েশনের জ্যাকি এসিমাজে-হীথ এবং হিগিনস্ কন্সট্রাকশনের সিড লিকি।

বারার স্টেপনী এলাকার ওসেন এস্টেট এর উন্নয়নে গত ২০০৯ সাল থেকে ২০১৩ সাল পর্যন্ত ২২০ মিলিয়ন পাউন্ডের বেশি বিনিয়োগ করা হয়েছে।

এ পর্যন্ত ১ হাজার ২০০ কাউন্সিল মালিকানাধীন ঘর সংস্কার করা হয়েছে। ৮ শতাধিক ঘরে নতুন কিচেন ও বাথরুম স্থাপন করা হয়েছে এবং সকল ঘরে নতুন জানালা লাগানোর পাশাপাশি বিল্ডিংয়ের ভেতরে ও বাইরে প্রয়োজনীয় সংস্কার কাজ করা হয়।

৮ শয়েরও বেশি নতুন ঘর নির্মান করা হয়েছে, যেগুলো সামর্থ্যহীন ভাড়ায়, অংশিদারিত্ব মালিকানায় এবং বিক্রির জন্য নির্ধারিত। ৩৯৫টি ঘর হচ্ছে এফোর্ডেবল রেন্টের জন্য। ১০০টি ঘর শেয়ার্ড

ওনারশিপ হিসেবে প্রথমবারের মতো ফ্রেতাদের কাছে বিক্রি করা হবে।

পরিদর্শন শেষে মেয়র জন বিগস বলেন, এই প্রকল্প এলাকায় আমি এসে সন্তুষ্ট। কিভাবে ওসেন এস্টেটের রূপান্তর ঘটছে এবং বর্তমান ও ভবিষ্যত বাসিন্দাদের জন্য দীর্ঘস্থায়ী ও স্টেকসই উন্নয়ন হচ্ছে তা দেখে আমি অভিভূত।

ডেপুটি মেয়র এবং কেবিনেট মেম্বর ফর হাউজিং, কাউন্সিলর সিরাজুল ইসলাম বলেন, ওসেন এস্টেটের পূণঃউন্নয়ন প্রকল্পের শুরু থেকেই স্থানীয় কমিউনিটি উন্নয়ন পরিকল্পনার কেন্দ্রে ছিলেন। সুপ্রতিষ্ঠিত কমিউনিটির জন্য নতুন ঘর-বাড়ি ও অবকাঠামো সুবিধাদি গড়ে তুলতে স্বীকৃতি কেন্দ্রে কমিউনিটিকে রাখাটা খুবই গুরুত্বপূর্ণ।

হোয়াইটচ্যাপল মার্কেট ট্রেডারের অর্থ দন্ড

অনিরাপদ মোবাইল ফোন চার্জার বিক্রির জন্য নিজের কাছে মজুদ করে রাখার দায়ে হোয়াইটচ্যাপল মার্কেটের একজন ট্রেডারকে অর্থদন্ডে দণ্ডিত করা হয়েছে।

২০১৩ সালের অক্টোবর ও নভেম্বর মাসে মেট্রোপলিটান পুলিশ এবং টাওয়ার হ্যামলেটস্ কাউন্সিলের ট্রেডিং স্ট্যান্ডার্ডস বিভাগের অফিসাররা হোয়াইটচ্যাপল মার্কেটে অভিযান চালায়।

চোরাই মোবাইল ফোন, স্মার্ট ফোন, নকল আইফোন ও চার্জার কেনা বেচা বন্ধে অপারেশন বিগ উইং ও অপারেশন ডিলাক্স নামের ঐ অভিযানের সময় নিম্নমানের অনিরাপদ চার্জারগুলো জব্দ করা হয়।

ভোক্তা সুরক্ষা অধ্যাদেশ ১৯৮৭ এর অধীনে অনীত অভিযোগের ওপর টেমস ম্যাজিস্ট্রেট কোর্টে গত মাসের ২০ তারিখে শুনানি অনুষ্ঠিত হয়। এসময় অভিযুক্ত ট্রেডার আব্দুল আল-সাইদি (হল টাওয়ার, মেইডা ভেল, ওয়েস্ট লন্ডন) দোষ স্বীকার করে নিলে আদালত তাকে ৩০০ পাউন্ড জরিমানা এবং মামলার খরচ বাবদ ১২০০ পাউন্ড ও ভিক্টিম সারচার্জ বাবদ আরো ৩০ পাউন্ড প্রদানের নির্দেশ দেন।

টাওয়ার হ্যামলেটসের ডেপুটি মেয়র এবং কমিউনিটি সেফটি বিষয়ক কেবিনেট মেম্বর, কাউন্সিলর শিরিয়া খাতুন বলেন, আমাদের ট্রেডিং স্ট্যান্ডার্ড অফিসারদের সাথে পুলিশের সম্মিলিত কাজের ফলে হাট বাজার থেকে এই সব অনিরাপদ, ঝুঁকিপূর্ণ ও নকল সামগ্রী উদ্ধার করা সম্ভব হয়েছে। এই প্রসিকিউশনের মধ্য দিয়ে এটাই

ফুটে ওঠেছে যে, জননিরাপত্তার ঝুঁকিপূর্ণ যেকোনো বিষয় আমাদের গুরুত্বের সাথে নিয়ে থাকি এবং অনিরাপদ পণ্য সামগ্রী বিক্রি বন্ধ করাটা আমাদের কাছে সব সময়েই অগ্রাধিকার পাবে।

বারার কোথাও নকল কিংবা অনিরাপদ পণ্য বিক্রি সম্পর্কে ট্রেডিং স্ট্যান্ডার্ড বিভাগকে রিপোর্ট করার জন্য ০২০ ৭৩৬৪ ৫০০৮ নাম্বারে ফোন করতে অনুরোধ করা হয়েছে।

ফ্রি র‍্যাপ মিউজিক সেশনের আয়োজন

টাওয়ার হ্যামলেটস্ বারায় বসবাসকারী, অধ্যয়নরত কিংবা চাকুরিসূত্রে অবস্থানকারী তরুণদের জন্য র‍্যাপ, মিউজিক প্রোডাকশন ও ড্রামা বিষয়ে ফ্রি প্রশিক্ষণ কর্মসূচি গ্রহণ করা হয়েছে।

কাউন্সিলের ইয়ুথ আর্টস্ টিম 'এ' টিম আর্টস্ এর উদ্যোগে আয়োজিত এই ফ্রি সেশন আগামী ২৪ সেপ্টেম্বর থেকে প্রতি বৃহস্পতিবার সন্ধ্যায় হ্যানবারি স্ট্রিটের ব্রাডি আর্টস্ সেন্টারে অনুষ্ঠিত হবে। যারা এদিন ঈদ উদযাপন করবেন, তারা ১ অক্টোবরের সেশনে অংশ নিতে পারেন।

অংশ গ্রহণকারীরা 'র‍্যাপচার' নামের একটি প্রোডাকশনে কিশোর তরুণ বয়সীদের সাথে কাজ করবেন, যেখানে তারা নিজের র‍্যাপ কম্পোজ করবেন, এবং এডিনবরা ফ্রিক্স ফেস্টিভ্যালে অংশ নিবেন।

'এ' টিম আর্টস্ এর সেশনে অংশগ্রহণকারীদের একজন উনিশ বছর বয়সী সাবরিনা ওয়াকার টিমের সাথে তাঁর কাটানো সময়ের অভিজ্ঞতা বর্ণনাকালে বলেন, 'এ' টিম আর্টস্ এর সাথে আমি বৃহস্পতিবার ও শনিবারের সেশনগুলো খুব

উপভোগ করেছি। এতে অংশ নেয়ার ফলে আমি আমার কলেজের সুবিধাদি ও যন্ত্রপাতি ব্যবহার করে আমার কলেজ প্রজেক্ট নিয়ে কাজ করতে সক্ষম হয়েছি। কোর্স ডেডলাইন এর মধ্যে কাজ শেষ করতে এটা আমাকে সাহায্য করেছে। আমি এখন গোল্ড আর্টস্ এওয়ার্ড লাভ করতে চাই।

কাউন্সিলের সংস্কৃতি বিষয়ক কেবিনেট মেম্বর, কাউন্সিলর আসমা বেগম বলেন, কম বয়সে শিল্প সংস্কৃতির সাথে সম্পৃক্ত হওয়ার অনেক সফল রয়েছে। এর ফলে আত্মবিশ্বাস বাড়ে, নতুন নতুন বন্ধু বান্ধব হওয়ার সুযোগ সৃষ্টি হয় এবং ভবিষ্যত পেশা নির্ধারণের ক্ষেত্রে দক্ষতা অর্জন করা সম্ভব হয়।

'র‍্যাপচার' এ এজে নামের এক মুসলিম তরুণীর গল্প বর্ণনা করা হবে। এজে টাওয়ার হ্যামলেটসে বসবাস করে এবং হিজাব পড়ে। সে আকর্ষণীয় র‍্যাপ লিরিকস লিখেছে, কিন্তু হিপ হপ এ তার অংশ নেয়াটা তার অভিভাবকরা কখনোই অনুমোদন করবেন না। তাই সে তার পক্ষে স্টেজে পারফর্ম করার জন্য তার বেষ্ট ফ্রেন্ড স্যাম এর নাম তালিকাভুক্ত করে। স্যাম প্রচুর প্রশংসা লাভ করে, কিন্তু এজের এই অসাধারণ প্রতিভার কথা কেউই জানতে পারে না।

'এ' টিম আর্টস্ ফ্রি র‍্যাপ সেশনে যোগ দিতে ১৩ থেকে ১৯ বছর বয়সীদের প্রতি আহ্বান জানিয়েছে। সেশনগুলো সন্ধ্যা ৬.৩০টা থেকে রাত ৯টা পর্যন্ত ব্রাডি আর্টস্ সেন্টারে (১৯২-১৯৬ হ্যানবারি স্ট্রিট, ই১ ৫এইচইউ) অনুষ্ঠিত হবে। স্পেশাল

ইয়ুথ পার্লামেন্ট বিতর্কে নিজেদের কাছে গুরুত্বপূর্ণ ইস্যুগুলো তুলে ধরতে তরুণদের প্রতি আহ্বান

Young people urged to Make Your Mark – page 6

আগামী নভেম্বর মাসে হাউজ অব পার্লামেন্টে অনুষ্ঠিতব্য ন্যাশনাল ইয়ুথ পার্লামেন্ট বিতর্কে যেসকল ইস্যু তরুণ সম্প্রদায়ের কাছে গুরুত্বপূর্ণ, সেগুলো তুলে ধরার জন্য তরুণদের প্রতি আহ্বান জানানো হয়েছে।

এই প্রক্রিয়ায় বারার কিশোর তরুণ বয়সী জনগোষ্ঠির সম্পৃক্ততা নিশ্চিত করতে টাওয়ার হ্যামলেটস্ ইয়ুথ কাউন্সিল এবং ইয়াং মেয়র অব টাওয়ার হ্যামলেটস্ ডেং ইয়ান স্যান বিশেষভাবে অগ্রহী।

যে সকল ইস্যু নিজেদের জীবনে প্রভাব ফেলেছে, তার মধ্যে ১০টি ইস্যু বাছাই করার জন্য তরুণ বয়সীরা ৯ অক্টোবর ওক্টোবর পর্যন্ত সময় পাচ্ছেন। ইস্যুগুলোর মধ্যে থাকতে পারে, ভোট দেয়ার বয়স সীমা ১৬ করা, মানসিক স্বাস্থ্য সেবাগুলোকে আরো উন্নত করা, আর্থিক কর্তন থেকে ইয়ুথ সার্ভিসগুলোকে বাদ দেয়া, বর্ণ ও ধর্মীয় বৈষম্য মোকাবেলা করা ইত্যাদি।

ইউকে ইয়ুথ পার্লামেন্টের রয়েছে ৬ শতাধিক সদস্য, যারা জাতীয়, আঞ্চলিক ও স্থানীয় পর্যায়ে তরুণ সম্প্রদায়ের প্রতিনিধিত্ব করে থাকে।

গত বছর অনুষ্ঠিত 'মেক ইয়র মার্ক' শীর্ষক কনসালটেশনে সারা দেশে ৮ লাখ ৭৫ হাজার তরুণ অংশ নিয়েছিলেন। এই সংখ্যাকে ১ মিলিয়ন অর্থাৎ ১০ লাখে উন্নীত করার উচ্চাভিলাষি পরিকল্পনা গ্রহণ করেছেন ইয়ুথ পার্লামেন্টের সদস্যরা।

ইয়াং মেয়র অব টাওয়ার হ্যামলেটস্ এবং মেম্বর অব ইয়ুথ পার্লামেন্ট, ডেং ইয়ান স্যান

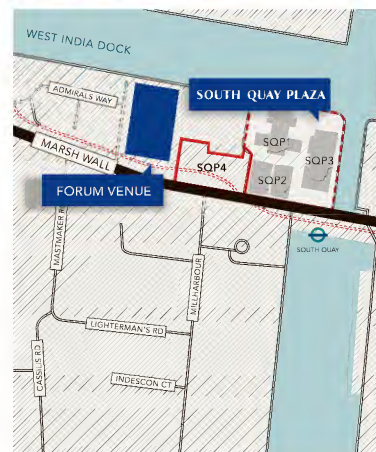

বলেন, এমন এক নির্বাচনে আমি ইয়াং মেয়র নির্বাচিত হয়ে সম্মানিত বোধ করছি, যে নির্বাচনে ৭২ শতাংশ ভোট কাস্ট হয়েছিলো। এতে করে এটাই পরিষ্কারভাবে ফুটে ওঠেছে যে, তরুণ বয়সীরা যে ইস্যুগুলো তাদের জীবনের ওপর সবচেয়ে বেশি প্রভাব বিস্তার করছে, সেগুলো নিয়ে তারা ভাবছে। তারা চায় তাদের জন্য সমৃদ্ধ ভবিষ্যত বিনির্মানের লক্ষ্যে প্রণীত নীতিমালায় সক্রিয়ভাবে অংশ গ্রহণ করতে।

ইয়াং মেয়র আরো বলেন, তরুণ সম্প্রদায়কে নিজেদের ভাবাবেগগুলোকে সংযুক্ত করতে এবং মেক ইয়র মার্ক সিদ্ধান্ত প্রক্রিয়ায় সম্পৃক্ত হতে আমি তাদেরকে অনুরোধ করছি। ইস্যুগুলোর দিকে নজর দাও এবং যে ইস্যুগুলো সবচেয়ে বেশি গুরুত্বপূর্ণ মনে হবে, সেগুলো বাছাই করুন। এক মিলিয়ন কিশোর তরুণ বয়সীকে ঐক্যবদ্ধ করতে আমরা ৫ হাজার তরুণ ঐক্যবদ্ধ প্রয়াস চালিয়ে যেতে পারবো বলে আমি আশাবাদি।

যে ৫টি বিষয় সবচেয়ে বেশি তরুণ বাছাই করবে, তা নিয়ে নভেম্বর মাসে হাউজ অব পার্লামেন্টে বিতর্ক অনুষ্ঠিত হবে।

Vicky's secrets revealed

Victoria Park is one of the most popular parks in London. In fact, it was voted the nation's favourite last year, as part of the prestigious Green Flag awards. As voting opens again for the People's Choice award, Sam Gough discovers a few things you perhaps didn't know about our much-loved Vicky. Photos by Kois Miah and Rehan Jamil.

1. The park just celebrated its 170th birthday

Victoria Park opened to the public in 1845. Plans for it were laid by notable architect Sir James Pennethorne.

It was intended to be a space for poor people to get away from the crowded streets of London, and enjoy some rest and relaxation.

At the time, disease was a huge problem in the East End and mortality rates were far higher than in the rest of London. Fresh air was, at the time, considered to be a great curer of illness, but the only parks were in wealthy central London and the West End.

Therein lay the foundations of what would become the nation's favourite park.

2. The People's Park and the political park

Victoria Park has long been known as 'the People's Park'. For many local working class people, it may well have been the only stretch of green they had ever seen in their lives.

It also became a centre for political meetings and rallies. Tower Hamlets was an area known for its socialist tendencies – and so many famous orators of the day would go down to Speakers Corner and deliver speeches on soap boxes.

Famous textile designer and socialist William Morris would draw some of the biggest crowds.

3. An award-winning park

Over the years, Victoria Park has cemented its popularity by winning lots of awards.

In summer 2008, the park was voted London's best by

Time Out. In 2012, it won its first Green Flag award, and was voted the best park in the UK in the national People's Choice award.

It regained this title in 2014 (narrowly missing out in 2013 to come second).

This year, Victoria Park won other green space awards.

You can vote for the People's Choice award at summary/?P=1

4. Remnants of old London Bridge can be found in the park

Two pedestrian alcoves that are surviving fragments of the old London Bridge can be found there. They are in the east end of the park, near the Hackney Wick war memorial.

These alcoves were part of the 1760 refurbishment of London Bridge. They provided protection for pedestrians – who were faced with the dangers of traffic and a very narrow carriageway.

The original London Bridge was demolished in 1831 and the alcoves were brought to the park in 1860. They have been Grade II listed since 1951.

5. The fountain that gave drink

Baroness Angela Burdett-Coutts inherited the park in her young age. As a woman, she wasn't allowed to drink, so she channelled her energy and drive into philanthropy.

While Victoria Park had provided open space for people to rest and clean themselves, there was no drinking water. People often drank from the bathing lakes.

So Burdett-Coutts paid £5,000 – a fortune at the time – to build the fountain. Originally called the Victoria Fountain, it was dedicated to Queen Victoria.

Victoria Park will compete with more than 1,400 spaces in the UK to regain its title. Note at www.greenflagaward.org/park-parkID=1577 park in its autumn finery

6. Some of the world's biggest music acts have performed there

The park has a long musical history, beginning with The Clash performing at an Anti-Nazi League concert.

Since 2005, Lovebox has been held in the park, which has seen artists including Blondie, Florence + The Machine, Chaka Khan and Hot Chip wowing crowds.

7. The disappearing lake and the Chinese pagoda

The Chinese pagoda arrived at the park in 1842. Originally in Hyde Park, it was built as part of the Chinese Festival of the same year and moved to its new home on the island in the boating lake.

The pagoda was partially damaged in the Second World War and the condition of the bridge to it worsened over time. In 1958, the pagoda was further damaged by fire, and it was demolished – to much outcry from the public. Years later, the lake was partially filled in and the island become part of the main park.

As part of a recent renovation, the pagoda (above) was rebuilt and the island reinstated – along with a whole host of other refurbishment works.

8. The oldest model boat club in the world is based at the park

The Victoria Model Steam Boat Club (VMSBC) was founded in 1904 and is still very much in action today. It holds up to 17 regattas a year. The first is traditionally held on Easter Sunday.

9. The park played a strategic role in the Second World War

During the Second World War, Victoria Park was largely closed to the public. It became an enormous anti-aircraft site. The guns placed there straddled the path of the German Luftwaffe bombers headed for the docks and warehouses further south.

Prisoner of war camps were also erected along the north eastern edge and were used to house Germans and Italians.

An air-raid shelter was built underground, just by St Marks Gate. On October 15, a bomb made a direct hit, tragically killing 15 and trapping around 100 people inside.–

10. The park recently went through a £12m refurbishment

In 2010, the National Lottery Big Lottery Fund and the council undertook the restoration of the park's historic monuments and built new play equipment.

A new community facility and café were created, the pagoda re-introduced, planting improved and a skate park and sports facilities built.

11. Nine million people visited last year

That's equivalent to the entire population of Sweden!

Fighting to make a difference

Freedom Riders, both black and white, were Civil Rights activists who rode interstate buses in the southern states of America to challenge laws or customs that enforced segregation in seating.

Community project

Rah Rah Theatre Company was set up by Jude Spooner and Gemma Beagley to bring theatre into the community.

Out & About

Performance set to mark black history

A PLAY telling the story of American civil rights activists comes to Tower Hamlets for Black History Month.

The Theatre Centre will be telling the tale of the Freedom Riders – students, both black and white, who travelled across America's Deep South in the 1960s to protest against racial segregation.

The company hopes its production will encourage young people to get involved with local, national and global issues.

Director Natalie Wilson said: "The play does not simply recount the history of the period, but hopes to empower young people to follow the example of previous generations, be creative, and find solutions to the problems they see around them."

The performance will take place at 6.30pm on Thursday, October 1, at the Mulberry and Bigland Green Centre in Cannon Street Road, E1.

The showcase is part of Tower Hamlets' Black History Month celebrations.

A NEW play about human trafficking is being used to raise awareness for World Anti-Slavery Day on Sunday, October 18.

Jude Spooner, founder and managing director of the Rah Rah Theatre Company, commissioned playwright Sam Hall to tell stories of human trafficking in the play, which is supported by Arts Council England and Merton Council.

My Mind Is Free tells the stories of some of the people who have fallen into modern-day slavery.

Sam has done extensive research with anti-trafficking charities, Merton Against Trafficking, Blythwood Care, The Medaille Trust and ECPAT UK, and the play is inspired by true life stories.

Each performance will also have a speaker from an anti-trafficking charity so the audience can find out more about what to do if they think somebody who they know is being trafficked.

The play takes place on Thursday, October 15, at Kahaila, 135 Brick Lane, E1.

Collection of winning work goes on display

BY MELANIE YEA

AN EXHIBITION of work by the winner of the East London Painting Prize 2015 opens at the Nunnery Gallery.

Willem Weismann's exhibition Alphabet Soup explores the similarities between the privacy of reading books and the personal experience of painting practice.

After winning the award in May, Weismann has embarked on creating new work that builds on the winning piece Library Guide, which captured the sensation of being enraptured in a novel.

The East London Painting Prize celebrates the talent and diversity of artists living and working in the boroughs of east London.

The prize has been created by the Foundation for FutureLondon and Bow Arts Trust, with support from the Goldhill Family and the Zabłudowicz Collection.

This is the second year of the prize which provides a £10,000 cash award as well as a solo exhibition at the Nunnery in Bow.

The title Alphabet Soup refers to the presence of text that is undecipherable in the paintings.

Writer Alice Butler has contributed to the exhibition publication, writing from the viewpoint of the women inside the paintings themselves.

Willem Weismann said: "There are similarities between books and painting. Both are a communication of information, and both are physical objects which are pushed to the side in an increasingly digital age, where everything is becoming virtual and weightless."

The exhibition opens on Friday, October 2 and runs until December 20.

A poetic celebration

SOME of the world's best-known international poets will perform their works in east London this November at the inaugural Globe Road Poetry Festival.

Curated by Andrea Brady, professor of poetry at Queen Mary University of London, the three-day festival celebrates the diversity of local and global poetic traditions.

The festival, which begins on November 13, includes free readings, artificial intelligence workshops with poetry 'bots', music, exhibitions and a poetry slam competition for school children.

News in brief

Get your quiz on

DO you know your Clangers from your Flumps? Can you still sing all the words to the Trio advert? Do the names Goldie, Bonnie and Mabel mean anything to you?

If so, get your teeth into a nostalgia quiz at the V&A Museum of Childhood, on Thursday, October 8.

It will be hosted by Londonist editor-at-large Matt Brown and visitors can expect a fact-tastic evening of questions about toys, games, TV shows, adverts and films from the 70s to the 90s. This evening event also gives visitors the chance to explore the museum's collection after dark.

Tickets cost £6 per person and a team must have two or more members. The bar opens at 6.30pm and the quiz begins at 7pm.

Tickets can be booked online at www.vam.ac.uk/moc

Finding freedom

DAVID Grindley is a long-term resident of the Isle of Dogs, an original member of the community theatre company SpaceWorks, a director and performer.

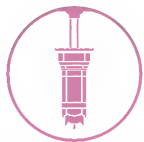

David (pictured) lives with cerebral palsy, which affects his speech and movement, and has spent his life in a wheelchair.

In 2014, he decided to share his experiences and tell his story on stage.

The Man Who Found His Freedom is a play inspired by his life. Examining life in care, family and friendships, this production explores the meaning of determination.

The play runs from Tuesday, October 6 to Saturday, October 10 at The Space, 269 Westferry Road, E14. Tickets cost £14.

New café adds value to Roman rejuvenation

BY GORDON BLUE

THE rejuvenation of the Roman Road continues apace and I'm particularly eager to try recently opened coffee shop HuggaMug Espresso Bar.

My lunch partner, Jane, and I settle down to coffees made from Nude Espresso beans, which are everything you'd expect. My flat white packed a punch and made me compos mentis for the first time that day.

Our sandwiches were just as good, Jane plumping for a tuna melt while I, never missing an opportunity to double-carb, went for an egg mayo and potato salad sandwich on hearty sourdough.

Plated and served with Kettle Chips (just in case I hadn't had enough potato), I couldn't be happier.

Or could I? As my attention turned to the impressive cake selection, we tried slab-like chocolatey brownies that were ambrosial in taste and texture.

Meanwhile, the lemon meringue cake was oozing with

HuggaMug offers bargain bites and drinks lemon curd with French meringue atop and was absolutely delicious – with value erring on the ridiculous at £1.40 a pop. I could develop a serious habit at this rate.

The prices in general are amazing and this would be my first port of call for a satisfying lunch, teamed with gorgeous cake and creamy coffees for just over a fiver. I defy you to find better value in the area.

On the day we visited, you even got free crisps with every coffee!

If you haven't tossed this paper aside by now to rush out the door, then I give up.

The café is small but perfectly formed, with a fresh and airy interior, alongside arty touches such as an abstract map of the surrounding area fashioned out of tape. Clever stuff and the service is charming and speedy.

Two ploughed through sandwiches, crisps, coffees and cakes for just over £15 in total.

HuggaMug Espresso Bar is at 33 Roman Road, E3. Tel: 07984 496564.

Grasp the nettle for delicious pizza

I HAD this dish in a fancy restaurant. It was made with snazzy mushrooms and expensive cheese and was utterly delicious.

So I tried to recreate it at home. The mushrooms were creamy white closed cup ones that I bought from the pound-a-bowl shop at the top of my road.

The cheese was a mix of cheapish mozzarella and a good, strong Cheddar. The nettles came from Tower Hamlets Cemetery Park. I have been taught how to 'grasp the nettle firmly' and harvest them without getting stung. However, if you are wary about this, try garden gloves and scissors and drop the leaves into a plastic bag.

Pick the new leaves at the tip of the plant, avoid the stringy old ones and the flower heads.

Nettle pizza

Ingredients

FOR THE BASE

1 cup of self-raising flour
1/2 tsp baking powder
Salt & pepper
Natural yoghurt

FOR THE TOPPING

1 Spanish onion
100g nettle leaves
100g mozzarella
100g Cheddar cheese
Nutmeg

Method

1. Pre-heat your oven to a medium heat.
2. Mix the flour, baking powder, salt and pepper and yoghurt to make a workable dough. Knead for a few minutes, then allow to rest for half an hour.
3. Form into a ball on a floured surface and roll out into a circle; keep flouring both sides. Place the circle on a baking sheet on greaseproof paper.
4. Thinly slice the onion and fry in a little oil until soft and beginning to brown.

5. Snip off the nettle leaves and place in a bowl. Cover with boiling water and stand for ten minutes.
6. Grate or slice your cheese.
7. Top the pizza base with onions. Spread the nettles evenly over and add the cheese. Sprinkle with a little grated nutmeg. If you like, you can crack an egg in the centre of the pizza.
8. Put in the oven and make sure the base (and egg) cooks through without going rock solid.

Gateway offers winter support to the elderly

Better heating and advice on fuel bills as part of Winter Warmers scheme

BY JESSICA ODUBAYO

IMPROVED heating, help with benefits and advice on coping with fuel bills were just some of the results of a campaign to support older people in the borough.

At its annual general meeting on September 7, Gateway Housing Association published a report on its Winter Warmers programme which was designed to help its older residents.

Set up in partnership with NHS Tower Hamlets Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), the programme saw Gateway staff volunteer to visit 429 residents aged 70 and over, with a detailed questionnaire to identify ways to improve the wellbeing, health and independence of older residents.

As a result of the survey, 122 residents were referred to day centres, 81 received advice on coping with fuel bills, 58 were helped to claim welfare benefits, 55 had radiators made more efficient and 12 had repairs to extractor fans and smoke detectors.

Two were helped to register with a GP.

The meeting heard from a family who were delighted that their 85-year-old aunt had a new heating system installed in her home, thanks to the programme.

Jane Ball, director of resident services at the housing association, said: "Gateway has shown what's possible when we reach out to older people."

Guest speaker at the event Jane Milligan, chief officer for the CCG, said: "Good housing leads to good health and wellbeing."

"Winter Warmers recognised that and builds on good practice to support elderly people to be healthier, happier and safer in their homes."

Gas safety alert for landlords

LANDLORDS are being alerted to new legislation about carbon monoxide detectors.

The law, which comes into effect on October 1, requires working carbon monoxide detectors to be fitted in any room with a solid fuel burning combustion appliance.

It also requires landlords to have working smoke alarms fitted on each floor of homes they let.

A spokesperson for British Gas said: "Exposure to carbon monoxide gas can be fatal and the main sources are faulty gas boilers or heaters."

"Landlords are already required to ensure their properties receive an annual gas safety check and certificate."

"Gas safety checks pick up problems, including faulty boilers, and are vital in helping to prevent leaks, explosions and carbon monoxide poisoning."

The company has issued simple checks to stay gas safe.

For landlords:

■ You need a gas safety check and record or certificate (CP12) for each property every year.

Give a copy to your tenants to keep safe.

■ Install a carbon monoxide alarm in your properties. You can buy one online and have it delivered direct to your tenants to install themselves with minimal effort.

For tenants:

■ Your landlord is legally obliged to have a gas safety check done every year, and to give you a copy of the property's gas safety certificate (CP12). If you don't know whether your property is safe, just ask.

■ Look for signs of staining, soot or discoloration on, or around your gas boiler, fire or water heater. These can be signs of carbon monoxide. Keep vents in doors, walls or windows clear to ensure gas fumes can safely escape your home.

■ Know the signs of carbon monoxide poisoning, which can be similar to the flu.

■ If you notice anything wrong, stop using the appliance immediately, open windows and doors and call the Gas Emergency Services Helpline on 0800 111 999 (24hrs). You should also seek medical advice.

Homelessness charity shop celebrates first anniversary

A HOMELESSNESS charity is set to celebrate the first anniversary of the opening of its shop in Poplar.

On Friday, September 25, customers can have a cup of tea or coffee and a slice of birthday cake at the Emmaus Poplar shop, between 11am-2pm, and there will be free face painting for children from 3.30pm.

Formerly homeless people helped by Emmaus will talk about the charity and the work it does to rebuild lives.

The shop, on Chrisp Street Market, opened in 2014 and sells donated goods including furniture, clothing and bric-a-brac as well as shop returns and end-of-line stock from major high street retailers and supermarkets.

Profits from sales are used to support formerly homeless people by providing a home and work in one of the 25 Emmaus communities in the UK.

Kim Trivett, shop manager, said: "As well as providing our customers with bargains, we have helped reduce Poplar's environmental impact through recycling of unwanted goods."

"We are providing quality work experience by filling volunteering roles with people in the local community."

"We would like to thank everyone who has supported us and look forward to welcoming you at our celebration day."

The London Chest Hospital will be converted into housing

Chest hospital sold for housing

A HOUSING association has completed a deal with Barts NHS Trust to buy the former London Chest Hospital site in Bethnal Green.

The historic four-acre plot was sold to Circle Housing on August 28.

The majority of patient services at the hospital were relocated to Barts Heart Centre at St Bartholomew's Hospital in April and the site has been fully decommissioned.

Philip Browne, director of development at Circle Housing, said: "We are pleased to confirm we have completed the purchase of the former London Chest Hospital site."

"We are looking forward to working with our partners to deliver much-needed housing for Tower Hamlets, which will build on the character of this unique site."

The social housing landlord, which owns and manages over 6,400 homes across Tower Hamlets and Havering, will be talking to local people over the coming months to seek their views and discuss the future use of the site, ahead of applying for planning permission next year.

In a separate event, campaigners held a public meeting on the future of the site on September 10.

Members of Community Chest, which focuses on the need for more housing and community spaces and to protect threatened sites, called on Barts to ensure the site is used for the public good.

Available homes will no longer be advertised in East End Life from 2nd October 2015

Over the years we have seen a dramatic increase in the number of people using the Homeseekers website to place bids for suitable homes. Currently over 91% of bids are made through the Homeseekers website. The cost of duplicating these properties on both our website and in this publication is no longer sustainable. As part of the value for money expectations the council and its registered social landlord partners have taken the decision to withdraw the Homeseekers adverts from East End Life.

All Housing Register applicants wishing to bid for properties are now directed to the Homeseekers website at www.thhs.org.uk for information on available properties.

The website provides full information for each property, real time bid positions based on your housing priority and your bidding history showing final bid positions for homes you have placed bids for. Using your bid position as a guide, you could also withdraw a bid and place it for an alternative home if this improves your chances of an offer.

Should you have any queries or require help with the bidding process please contact your Lettings team for help. The council's Housing Options (Lettings team) number is 0207 364 2826.

'WE ARE A GOOD SCHOOL'

MATHS ACADEMIC COACH - KS3 & KS4

35 hours per week - Term-Time + 1 week, 1 year contract
Salary range NJC Scale 4 (18-21) £21,120 - £23,145
(actual salary £18,551-£20,330 for term-time only)

We are seeking to appoint a dynamic, committed and inspirational Academic Coach to support our maths faculty. The post will involve coaching students who have fallen behind in Maths on a one to one and small group basis. Based primarily in Year 11, the aim of this post is to improve attainment so that the vast majority of our students meet or exceed expectations in Maths.

Applicants for this post will have a good degree in Maths or a closely related Maths subject. They will be able to demonstrate a commitment to and empathy for young people. They will also have high level of academic literacy.

SESSIONAL 1:1 MATHS TUTOR

(hourly rate depending on qualification and experience) - KS3 & KS4

We are seeking to extend our team of sessional maths tutors so that we can work with even more students in small groups and one to one who need extra help in Maths. Based primarily in Key Stage 3, the ideal candidate will have a degree in Maths and be a qualified teacher in either the primary or secondary phases. Applications from highly skilled and experienced TAs or HLTAs are also welcomed.

TEACHING ASSISTANT (MALE)

31 hours per week, 6 months contract (Genuine Occupational Requirement in accordance with the Equality Act 2010) Salary range NJC Scale 2 initially (11-13) £18,612-19,335 (actual salary £14,116-£14,665)

We are looking for a skilled Teaching Assistant to join our successful Learning Support Faculty. The post would involve supporting the learning of students with special needs in mainstream lessons.

We would particularly welcome applications from candidates looking for experience in a school prior to starting a career in teaching. All candidates must possess GCSE (or equivalent) in English and Maths.

Please download application packs from our school website: www.georgegreens.com

Closing date: Friday, 2nd October 2015 @ 9am
Interviews: TBC

George Green's School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We expect all staff, external agencies and volunteers to share this commitment. Any appointment is subject to an enhanced DBS Check.

THE SILVERTOWN TUNNEL

PROPOSED APPLICATION FOR A DEVELOPMENT CONSENT ORDER

SECTION 47 PLANNING ACT 2008

NOTICE PUBLICISING A STATEMENT OF COMMUNITY CONSULTATION

Transport for London (TfL) of Windsor House, 42 - 50 Victoria Street, London SW1H 0TL proposes to make an application ("the proposed application") under section 37 of the Planning Act 2008 for a Development Consent Order authorising a new twin bore road tunnel beneath the River Thames known as the Silvertown Tunnel. The project will be located in the London Boroughs of Greenwich, Tower Hamlets and Newham and includes the following elements:

- twin road tunnels approximately 1.4km long under the River Thames linking the A102 on the Greenwich Peninsula to the Tidal Basin Roundabout in the Royal Docks area;
- a tunnel approach road on the north side of the river to connect to the Tidal Basin Roundabout, which will be altered to create a new signal-controlled roundabout linking Silvertown Way, Dock Road and the Lower Lea Crossing;
- widening of the A102 on the south side of the river to create new slip-road links to the Silvertown Tunnel;
- a new flyover to take southbound traffic exiting the Blackwall Tunnel over the northbound approach to the Silvertown Tunnel;
- replacement of the Boord Street footbridge over the A102 with a pedestrian and cycle bridge; and
- the introduction of road user charging for the Silvertown Tunnel and the Blackwall Tunnel.

The Secretary of State has directed that the Silvertown Tunnel and associated matters be treated as a Nationally Significant Infrastructure Project for the purposes of the Planning Act 2008 which means that a Development Consent Order (DCO) is required to build, operate and maintain the project.

TfL has prepared a Statement of Community Consultation in respect of the proposed application which can be inspected at the places and times set out below.

TfL has a duty under section 47 of the Planning Act 2008 to consult the local community about the proposed application in accordance with its Statement of Community Consultation ("SoCC"). The SoCC explains how TfL will consult the local community about the proposed application. Details about the consultation and how to get involved are set out in the SoCC. The consultation described in the SoCC will take place from 5 October 2015 until 29 November 2015.

The SoCC is available for inspection as follows:

1. The SoCC can be downloaded from the project website at www.tfl.gov.uk/silvertown-tunnel from 21 September 2015.
2. The SoCC is available to view in hard copy format from 21 September 2015 to 29 November 2015 at the locations, days and times set out in the following table (opening days and times may be subject to change):

Boost for Hamlets

Waltham Forest 1
Tower Hamlets 4
TOWER Hamlets FC haven’t had much to shout about in recent weeks – it’s been their Mile End Stadium neighbours Sporting Bengal taking the headlines.

But they bounced back from their FA Vase exit to claim the points against Wadham Lodge and, on Saturday, September 12, they claimed another win and did it in style.

They were 4-0 up before Waltham Forest responded and by then it was game over.

Tower Hamlets took the lead when Ade Lazoio scored from close range after 33 minutes then doubled their advantage through Randell Williams, who ran from the halfway mark to score.

Omar Rowe made it 3-0 on 72 minutes and Raymar Cedras wrapped up the game five minutes later.

Forest grabbed a late consolation, but by then it was all over.

SPORTING are still unbeaten in the Essex Senior League, but they failed to find their shooting boots at Mile End Stadium.

It was nothing like the thrilling game against Burnham Ramblers in the FA Vase the previous week, but with their squad hit by injuries it was a question of damage limitation.

Manager Anwar Uddin was happy though and tweeted: “Delighted with a mature and disciplined performance from the squad. #stillunbeaten.”

ILFL awards night

THE Inner London Football League gave out more than 100 trophies at its annual presentation evening on September 10.

It was a good night for Tower Hamlets Vets, who collected the Vets Summer League title, with Carlos Eduardo Oliveira Silva named Summer League player of the year and Nurul Hoque taking manager of the year.

POPLAR’S Veras Karate Academy took on the world in Glasgow.

The club, competing in the British International Championships, finished as the top association in London after facing opposition from Brazil, Germany, Netherlands, Wales, Ireland, Scotland, Algeria, Italy and Slovakia.

The day started with Luca Veras and Jack Gentili winning gold in the pairs kata for 9 years and under.

But there were other impressive performances with silver medals won by Luca Veras in the 8-year-old individual kata, and Seyhan Cinar in the 10- to 11-year-old individual kata.

Bronze medals went to: Ismael Cinar Bronze – 8-year-old’s individual kata, Jack Gentili and John-Joe Jones shared third place in the 7-year-old individual fight, Ben Pomeroy in the 14- to 15-year-old individual competition and Jasmine Pomeroy in the under-21 fight event.

The squad of 11 returned home with seven medals and a 16th place out of 58 clubs – the best in London.

Sensei Raphael Veras said: “I am happy with the results bearing in mind we only had a short time to prepare.”

Veras hold classes at Trussler Hall Community Centre in Grundy Street, E14.

Charlie's champion and Frank aims to follow

BOXING ROUND-UP
BY PETER FAULKNER

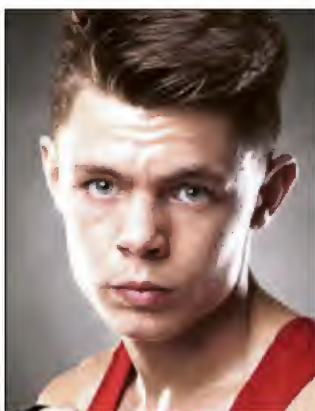

EAST London has one new champion and hopes to crown another this coming weekend.

Two former Repton stars are the headline makers with Frank Buglioni bidding for world super-middleweight glory and former club-mate Charlie Edwards celebrating his new-found status as English flyweight champion.

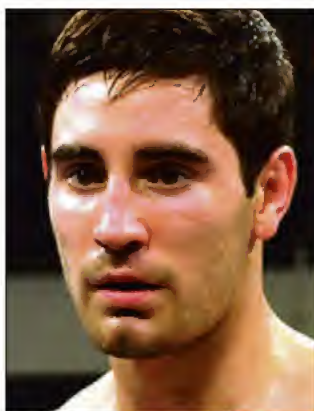

At Wembley on Saturday night Buglioni takes on Russian Fedor Chudinov, who is being guided by the man once branded the best pound-for-pound fighter in the world.

Roy Jones Junior, a class act in the 1990s, has been in Russia training WBA champion Chudinov and giving him tips on how to defeat Buglioni.

The 46-year-old American won world titles at mid-

Charlie Edwards

dleweight, super-middle, light-heavy and heavyweight and is still in pursuit of another in the cruiserweight division.

Not bad for someone who still has ambitions at an age when most fighters have hung up their gloves for a decade or more.

"Buglioni's a very good and very smart fighter, but I believe that Fedor will win without a problem," said Jones.

"I think Fedor can catch him late."

Buglioni, the reigning European super-middleweight champion who comes from Italian stock, is not looking past Chudinov.

But he believes there are some high-profile fights out there to take him up a level – including an all-British unification fight with either George Groves or IBF champion James DeGale.

"It would be great if we both win our world title fights. A unification fight against him at Stamford Bridge would be a dream come true as we are both big Chelsea fans.

"Being from an Italian background you could say it has all the hallmarks of a Rocky movie."

Charlie Edwards won the English flyweight title in his fifth fight, following in the footsteps of the East End's own Charlie Magri.

Edwards defeated Louis Norman from Leicester on points at the O2 Arena on September 12, and will now build up towards British title standard.

Edwards looked sharp and eager and, despite Norman's boast that he would end it quickly, won comfortably, baffling the champion with his elusive jab and move style.

Edwards boxed with a maturity that belied the fact he only turned professional in January.

Cricket

TOWER Hamlets Cricket Club are celebrating after winning one title and just getting pipped to another.

The first team are champions of the Middlesex Championship Division Three and the second team finished runners-up in the second team league championship.

Both teams have been promoted another step closer to playing higher-level cricket.

The club are now hoping a grass wicket will be put in at Victoria Park, which they can use as their home ground. This year marked the sixth year of the club's existence and their record of achievement continues.

The colts section only started last summer, but with the involvement of parents, club coaches and the management is growing fast.

Role of honours last six years

2015: Adult first team wins the league, second team are runners-up. The club also ran four colts teams.

2014: First and second team are third in the league. Ran three colts teams.

2013: Adult first and second teams are runners-up in Middlesex Championship League Division 3 and U17 Central Zone champions.

2012: Adult team win the Middlesex Championship League Division 4, U17s are Central Zone champions.

2011: U17 Central Zone champions and county runners up, T20 Asian Premier League winners, runners-up inaugural London International 6s.

2010: U17 Central Zone champions and county runners-up.

Rugby

Ashworth gets off to a flying start

MILLWALL 24 Dagenham 12

MILLWALL started the season with a hard-fought 24-12 win over Dagenham in the Junior Vase and can feel optimistic with a new coach, strong additions to the squad and players returning from injury.

A strong opening five minutes from Millwall was rewarded with a try and they added two more first-half converted scores through the centre pairing of Matt Rowland and Phil Whittaker both benefiting from excellent distribution from debutant Coran Ashworth at fly-half.

Dagenham, however, remained in contention and a try for made it 19-5 at half-time.

The second period was scrappy but a second Dagenham try narrowed the gap.

The last quarter of the game did see Millwall start to dominate the scrum and the increased pressure eventually paid off with Mason scoring a fourth try to put them ten points clear.

World Cup fever

RUGBY fans are getting ready for the World Cup, with much of the action happening right on our doorstep at the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Stadium.

The stadium will host six matches with France taking on Romania on September 23.

Just 24 hours later the New Zealand All Blacks will take on Namibia, then comes Ireland versus Italy on October 4, South Africa versus the USA on October 7, and the play-off for third place on October 30.

As if that wasn't enough, on November 7 England take on New Zealand as part of a three-match rugby league series.

Sailing

Paddle-fest fun

IF you love life on the river and want to gain new paddling skills, then get down to Shadwell Basin this weekend (September 26-27) for the annual Paddle-fest.

This is one of the biggest events in the sailing calendar aimed at people who already kayak, and Shadwell Basin Outdoor Activity Centre wants them to celebrate and encourage people to give it a go.

The action-packed weekend, involves workshops, river trips, demo boats, trade stands and evening lectures.

This year the Sunday will be the annual No Tide Day on the river when the Thames Barrier is closed for the full day, an opportunity to experience the Thames at its calmest.

The cost is £40 for the weekend or £20 for a day ticket. Once you have booked you can choose your preferred workshops and time slots.

NEWS FROM TOWER HAMLETS COUNCIL AND YOUR COMMUNITY

The Mannah the moment

Badminton youngster leads borough to triple title success

BY PETER FAULKNER

MANNAH Rahman is the new golden boy of Tower Hamlets badminton.

The 14-year-old Stepney Green pupil led Tower Hamlets to triple title success at the Middlesex Junior Championships at The Dome, Hounslow.

In the singles Rahman beat six top opponents and even the final proved relatively straightforward with a 21-15 win.

In the boys' doubles he partnered Gulam Rasul Mahi, from St Paul's Way School.

And the pair breezed past their group and semi-final opponents.

The final was a different story and was dramatically close. Mannah and Mahi held their nerve though to win 21-18.

To complete an outstanding hat-trick of titles, Mannah paired up with Sir John Cass School pupil Veronica Ramires for the mixed event. Veronica found things tough in the girls' singles and girls' doubles, but upped her game and was the outstanding player in each of the pair's mixed matches.

Excellent serving and unbelievable reactions at the net saw them take the title in style.

The same day, Tower Hamlets had a promising set of young players competing in the under-11 championships.

Two girls and four boys were selected from the Tower Hamlets Youth Sport Foundation Sporting Diamonds Rackets programme, to give them a first taste of regional competition, and they surpassed all expectations.

Firstly with Ryan Buttery (St Saviour's School) and Arayo La Torre Cruz (Guardian Angels) winning the runners-up medal in the boys' doubles in their first ever tournament.

This was followed up by an unexpected win for Caterina Gibbs (English Martyrs School) and Aisha Mohamed (Shapla Primary School) in the girls' doubles with Caterina also taking the silver medal in the singles.

Chris Dakin, head coach of Tower Hamlets badminton academy and development officer for foundation, was not surprised by the results.

"Those players from the under-15 category were immense," he said.

"Their performance reflects the hard work schools in the borough have done to drive forward badminton in after-school sessions."

Sporting Diamonds Rackets coach Lee Murray was equally pleased for his under-11s.

He said: "For a first tournament for these set of players, the results are nothing short of incredible. What they achieved was exceptional."
